Travel insurance service is available on Polish, Spanish, German, French, Italian, Belgian, Austrian, Danish, Hungarian, Dutch, Norwegian and Latvian markets. Meals service is limited and available only on selected routes.

General guidelines for passengers

1. For safety reasons we recommend online check-in available 24 hours before departure.
2. Access to the terminal will be limited to passengers with a valid boarding pass, flight ticket or booking confirmation - printed or stored on mobile devices.
3. Due to the extended check-in time required due to new safety procedures, all passengers are requested to arrive at the airport earlier.
4. Please arrive at the departure Gate no later than 30 minutes before the scheduled departure time.
5. A face mask is required during the entire journey – both at the airport and onboard.
6. It's required to maintain the appropriate social distance within in the terminal (including waiting in security line or passport control, in the jet bridge when picking up luggage) and outside of the terminal.

IMPORTANT

We kindly remind you that due to the unstable epidemic situation, before buying a ticket, passengers are obliged to check the documents and procedures required to cross the border of the country they intend to go to.

Information on current safety procedures and restrictions applied in individual countries is available, among others; on the websites of the IATA International Air Transport Association, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, country-specific Embassies, Consulates and respective Ministries of Health.

Current safety procedures and entry restrictions applied in individual countries are available on Sherpa platform.

Procedures should be checked on an ongoing basis as restrictions may change.

WARNING!

Passengers who do not have the required documents and thus do not have the right to enter the country, will not be allowed on board.
